By T. L. HAWRINS. Tune,- Come, come away.

First verse sung by the Teacher: I rise to tell my Pupils our quarter now is ended, And make it known Our School is done,

And I am doomed to roam. How fondly shall I think of thee, O! will you all remember me, When far, far away I be, From friends and happy home.

The girls will then reply: Of yes our fond teacher we girls will long rememb'r How your heart did burn To make us learn,

As time passed away: And how we strove each to excel, When words were given hard to spell, To read, to write, to cipher well, On many a happy day.

hen the boys will sing: And we too, your buys of promise, will rememb That face of thine,

Where learning shine, When you're far away. Of we shall ne'er forget to tell, What pains you took to bear us well, To read, to write, and then to spell, On many a happy day.

All sing, and repeat the last verse: Then let us all together ever long remember The happy hours, Beneath those bowers, We all have passed away. And as we now are doomed to part, One fond embrace before we start. And plodge to each our hand and heart,

This separating day.

> MARRIAGE IN GERMANY .- A German correspondent of the Boston Journal gives the good character to stoop to crime. In short, following as one of the curiosities of German law; "The German law requires of a man who wishes to be married should produce a certificate of baptism, place of birth, and also proof of the possession of sufficient property to sustain a family. Of course a youth who desires to take to himself a help-mate, is very often unable to do all that is exacted by the authorities, and the consequence is, that in thousands of instances you will find a man and woman living together, with children, whose marriage has never been solemnized. But it is understood here that a family, consisting of a wife and children, is not permitted to enter the city of New York without producing satisfactory proof that the woman is the wife of the man that accompanies her.—Consequently, when these people wish to emigrate, they just go to the American consultand get married."
